

Bullying - common after rape

I tried to report rape in 2008. Unfortunately police never took me seriously.

I was blamed for being older, out or leading him on.

I was told to forget about it by the police, who took no action despite my complaints which were numerous.

This left the rapist to bully me and victimize me around the town - along with his mates and wife. Its soul destroying this was allowed to happen.

But it all stems from the system not wanting to do anything about these men.
