

Notts police "poem"

The poem is so distasteful, but the fact that notts police haven't apologised to victims or removed it from their site is just adding insult to injury. However, I'm not surprised by their response, this isn't the first time notts police have let me down in regards to rape. As a victim I was treated like a criminal, whilst the rapist walks free...