

Shamed

How come a woman can be raped, beaten, humiliated, branded, tormented, stalked and harassed by evil and when they finally confide in someone and begin to trust they are betrayed and shamed?

Their darkest most intrusive shames are told to everyone, so everyone knows what she is, what she suffered? How is that fair?

She's the one that's hurt, but while yet again, the evil comes off free and clear, she's the one they will all be laughing at and talking about, isn't justice wonderful?
